The image shows a screenshot of a web browser displaying the iParent registration page. The browser's menu bar includes File, Edit, View, Favorites, Tools, and Help. The page title is "i-Parent". The main heading is "iParent registration". Below the heading, there is a sub-heading "Please fill out the following information to set up your iParent account." The form contains several fields: "Preferred user name (may not contain any spaces):" with the value "gregriechman" and a note "This will be the user name you will enter each time you log into iParent"; "Your password must:" with a list of requirements: start with a letter (not a number), be at least eight characters in length, include at least one numeral (0-9), not include any spaces, and not repeat the same character more than three times in a row (e.g., aaa or 777); "Password: (Case sensitive)" with a masked input field; "Confirm password:" with a masked input field; "Password hint: Please answer the following questions in case you forget your password." with three questions and answers: "First question: In what town or city were you born?" with answer "Centralia"; "Second question: What is your mother's middle name?" with answer "Jean"; "Third question: What was your high school's team name?" with answer "Centralia Olympians". At the bottom left, there is a "Log in" button. Red arrows point from the right side of the page to the username field, the password field, the "Log in" button, and the "Answer to third question" field. On the right side, there is text: ". Enter the following. After you have entered the information" and ". Click Log in".
